Jeffrey Siegel, Lifetime's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented,

Lifetime's businesses performed well in the quarter, contributing to increases in consolidated net sales, gross margin percentage, income from operations, adjusted net income and EBITDA margin. Our core kitchenware products category performed exceptionally well, reflecting the roll-out of new products and programs, as well as the inclusion of Fred® & Friends, which Lifetime acquired in December 2012. I am especially pleased that our Home Solutions product category, which had been a laggard over the past several quarters, rebounded smartly during the period.

Our outlook for the fourth quarter remains positive. Nevertheless, due to some concerns about the overall strength of the holiday shopping season and the types of products on which consumers will spend their money, we are reducing our sales guidance for the full year to an increase of 3% to 5%.

On October 31, 2013, the Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.0375 per share payable on February 14, 2014 to shareholders of record on January 31, 2014.
