PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To be held on June 7, 2007

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Lifetime Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the "Meeting") to be held on the date, at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Stockholders of record at the close of business on April 23, 2007 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy shall be mailed to stockholders on or about May 8, 2007.

THE MEETING

Voting at the Meeting

On April 23, 2007, there were 13,293,061 shares of the Company's common stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), issued and outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders at the Meeting.

A majority of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock represented at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. Assuming a quorum is present, (1) the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares so represented is necessary for the election of directors and (2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares so represented is necessary to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company.

Proxies and Proxy Solicitation

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions marked on the proxies, unless such proxies have previously been revoked. If no directions are indicated on such proxies, they will be voted for the election of each nominee named below under "Election of Directors" and for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company. If any other matters are properly presented at the Meeting for action, the proxy holders will vote the proxies (which confer discretionary authority upon such holders to vote on such matters) in accordance with their best judgment. Each proxy executed and returned by a stockholder may be revoked at any time before it is voted by timely submission of a written notice of revocation or by submission of a duly executed proxy bearing a later date (in either case directed to the Secretary of the Company), or, if a stockholder is present at the Meeting, he may elect to revoke his proxy and vote his shares personally. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business.

If a stockholder, present in person or by proxy, abstains on any matter, such stockholder's shares of Common Stock will not be voted on such matter. Thus, an abstention from voting on any matter has the same legal effect as a vote "against" the matter, even though the stockholder may interpret such action differently. Except for determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, broker non-votes are not counted for any purpose in determining whether a matter has been approved.

The Company will bear the cost of preparing, printing, assembling and mailing the proxy, this Proxy Statement and other material which may be sent to stockholders in connection with this solicitation. It is contemplated that brokerage houses will forward the proxy materials to beneficial holders at the request of the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by the use of the mails, officers and other employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone without being paid any additional compensation. The Company will reimburse such persons for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in accordance with the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

Board Independence

Michael Jeary and Sheldon Misher, Ms. Cherrie Nanninga and Mr. William Westerfield, are independent directors under the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market, LLC. Messrs. Jeffrey Siegel, Ronald Shiftan and Craig Phillips are employees of the Company and are not considered to be independent directors.

Code of Conduct and Business Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct, that applies to all of its directors, officers (including its chief executive officer, chief financial officer and controller) and employees. On an annual basis, written acknowledgement of understanding and compliance is required of all directors, officers and employees. A copy of the Company's code of conduct will be furnished to any stockholder, without charge, upon written request to the Vice-President—Finance of the Company.

The Company does not have a standing nominating committee or committee performing similar functions. Instead, the Board of Directors as a whole acts as a nominating committee. AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries that are set forth in the Company's 2006 Annual Report to Stockholders and in Item 8 of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 with management of the Company and Ernst & Young LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company.

The Audit Committee discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees," as amended, which includes, among other items, matters relating to the conduct of an audit of the Company's financial statements and the adequacy of internal controls.

The Audit Committee received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and discussed with Ernst & Young LLP that firm's independence from the Company. The Committee concluded that the provision by Ernst & Young LLP of non-audit services, including tax preparation services, to the Company is compatible with its independence.

Based on the review and discussions with management of the Company and Ernst & Young LLP referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company publish the consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2006 in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and in the Company's 2006 Annual Report to Stockholders.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The Company's compensation program historically has been designed to attract, reward, and retain capable executives and to provide incentives for the attainment of short-term performance objectives and strategic long-term performance goals. A number of key principles guide Management and the Compensation Committee in determining compensation for hiring, motivating, rewarding, and retaining executive officers who create both short and long-term stockholder value for the Company. The Company believes that a significant amount of compensation must be linked to measurable success in business performance. A strong link between compensation and performance provides incentives for achieving short and long-term financial and business objectives and increasing the value of the Company's stock, thereby increasing value to the Company's stockholders. Management and the Compensation Committee also believe that it must set compensation at levels that will be competitive with the compensation offered by those companies against whom the Company competes for executive talent so that the Company continues to attract and retain talented and experienced executives.

In an effort to balance the need to retain executive talent yet motivate executives to achieve superior performance, Management and the Compensation Committee adopted a compensation philosophy that contains both fixed and variable elements of compensation.

The named executive officers ("NEOs") in this Proxy Statement are:

Jeffrey Siegel	Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and President
Ronald Shiftan	Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Operating Officer
Alan Kanter	President of the Flatware and Home Décor Divisions and Executive Vice-President
Evan Miller	President of Sales and Executive Vice-President
Robert McNally	Chief Financial Officer, Vice-President—Finance and Treasurer

Role of the Compensation Committee

The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to assist the Board of Directors of the Company in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to executive as well as non-executive compensation. The principal duties and responsibilities of the Compensation Committee include: (i) reviewing and approving compensation principles that apply generally to the Company's employees; (ii) establishing and reviewing corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer, evaluating their performance in light of the established goals and objectives, and approving their annual compensation; (iii) reviewing the corporate goals and objectives established by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer relevant to the compensation of the other NEOs and the other executive officers of the Company; and, (iv) reviewing, based primarily on the evaluations and recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer, the performance of such executive officers in light of the established goals and objectives. The Compensation Committee also reviews the evaluation process and compensation structure for the other members of the senior management of the Company. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for the administration of the Company's 2000 Incentive Bonus Compensation Plan and the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan.

Specific Elements of NEO Compensation

Salary

Salary is intended to compensate the executive for performance of core job responsibilities and duties.

The salaries of Jeffrey Siegel and Ronald Shiftan are fixed by employment agreements that have been negotiated between Messrs. Siegel and Shiftan and the Compensation Committee and are subject to annual increases based on changes in the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the New York Area.

In determining Mr. Siegel's compensation, the Compensation Committee took into account Mr. Siegel's long-standing executive role in the Company, his extensive knowledge of and experience in the Housewares industry and his role in directing the growth of the Company over the past five years. The Compensation Committee views Mr. Siegel as one of the significant leaders in the Housewares industry. The Compensation Committee also reviewed compensation being paid to other chief executive officers having the depth of experience, knowledge and industry awareness possessed by Mr. Siegel.

In determining Mr. Shiftan's compensation, the Compensation Committee took into account his significant role in structuring and implementing the Company's acquisition strategy. The Compensation Committee also considered Mr. Shiftan's role in assisting Mr. Siegel in various aspects of the Company's business as its growth accelerated.

The salaries of the other NEOs are initially based on standard employment agreements entered into between the NEOs and the Company with annual increases determined by Jeffrey Siegel and Ronald Shiftan based on performance which are reviewed by the Compensation Committee.

Cash bonus

The NEOs receive cash bonuses based on set formulas pursuant to their respective employment agreements and are based generally on either increases in operating income or net income as more fully described below under the Summary Compensation Table.

Stock Options

The Compensation Committee granted non-qualified stock options to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company to Jeffrey Siegel, Ronald Shiftan and Alan Kanter in connection with their respective employment agreements. The other NEOs, as well as other employees, who, in the judgment of Messrs. Siegel and Shiftan, are in a position to contribute significantly to the Company's success, receive options generally once a year based on their performance. The option grants are approved by the Compensation Committee.

Other Compensation

The Company maintains a defined contribution 401(k) plan for all employees including the NEOs and matches contributions of 50% of the employee's first 4% of contributions. With the acquisition of the business and certain assets of Syratech Corporation in April 2006, the Company assumed an obligation related to an agreement that provides for retirement benefit payments to Alan Kanter. The Company does not provide any such retirement benefits to any other NEO. The Company offers perquisites that it believes are customary and reasonable, such as Company paid automobile expenses, and with respect to Messrs. Siegel, Shiftan, Miller and McNally, reimbursement or payment of certain insurance expenses and with respect to Jeffrey Siegel, the reimbursement of certain legal expenses.

In 2006 Mr. Siegel's other compensation included a $350,000 payment made to Mr. Siegel pursuant to his previous employment agreement. In 2006 Mr. Kanter's other compensation included a $300,000 payment made to Mr. Kanter for assistance he provided the Company in its evaluation of the markets for sterling silver and stainless steel flatware, picture frames and home décor products in connection with the acquisition of the business and certain assets of Syratech Corporation.

The following chart shows each of the above elements of compensation as a percentage of total compensation received by the NEOs for 2006:

	Major Elements of Each NEO's Compensation as a Percentage of Total Compensation				Total Compensation Per Summary Compensation Table below
	Salary %	Bonus%	Stock options%	Other compensation% (1)	Total $

-16-

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation in excess of $1 million paid to any of the corporation's Chief Executive Officer and four other most highly paid executive officers. Qualifying performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limitation if certain requirements are met. The Company periodically reviews the potential consequences of Section 162(m) and may structure the performance-based portion of an executive's compensation to comply with certain exemptions in Section 162(m). However, the Company reserves the right to use its judgment to authorize compensation payments that do not comply with the exemptions in Section 162(m), when the Company believes that such payments are appropriate and in the best interests of the stockholders, after taking into consideration changing business conditions or the executive officer's performance.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis with management. Based on the review and discussion referred to above, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Company's Proxy Statement.

The agreement provides for an annual salary of $900,000 with annual increments based on changes in the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the New York Area.

The employment agreement provides for the payment each year of:

- (i) An annual cash performance bonus of 3.5% of the annual increase of the Company's income before income taxes over the Company's income before income taxes for the immediately prior year, as reported in the Company's consolidated statements of income in its annual report excluding extraordinary items that appear on the audited financial statements as extraordinary items, and;

- (iii) To the extent that the Company has annual income before income taxes, 2.5% of an amount equal to the sum of his base salary and the 2.5% EIBIT Bonus.

Pursuant to the agreement, the total of Mr. Siegel's salary and the 2.5% EIBIT Bonus in any year shall not exceed $1,800,000.

On the date of the execution of the agreement, the Company also granted Mr. Siegel an option to purchase 250,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan, the terms of which are described under Grants Of Plan Based Awards For The Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2006.

Under Mr. Siegel's previous employment agreement dated April 6, 2001, Mr. Siegel was due a payment of $350,000 by April 6, 2006. The Company did not make such payment by April 6, 2006. Pursuant to his current employment agreement, the amount will be paid to Mr. Siegel, plus interest, in installments through January 1, 2008.

Upon execution of the employment agreement, the Company paid Mr. Siegel a signing bonus of $125,000.

The agreement also provides for other perquisites including Company paid automobile related expenses, the reimbursement of legal fees for financial, investment and/or tax advice, and the drafting of wills and trusts in connection with estate planning up to $10,000 during any twelve month period, reimbursement of legal fees related to the drafting of his employment agreement up to $20,000 and the reimbursement of insurance premiums paid by Mr. Siegel up to $60,000 per year plus a gross-up payment from the Company in an amount such that the net amount retained by Mr. Siegel, after the calculation and reduction for any Federal, state, and local income taxes and employment taxes on the gross-up payment, shall be equal to the additional life insurance policy income.

The agreement further provides for payments due to Mr. Siegel upon the termination of his employment as described in the section Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control.

Ronald Shiftan

On October 17, 2005, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Ronald Shiftan whereby the Company employed him as its Vice Chairman and Chief Operating Officer for a five year term commencing on July 1, 2005, thereafter, the term automatically renews for additional one year periods unless terminated by either the Company or Mr. Shiftan. The agreement provides for an initial annual salary of $400,000 with annual increases based on changes in the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the New York Area. Effective January 1, 2007, Mr. Shiftan's employment agreement was amended to increase his annual salary to $500,000.

The employment agreement provides for an annual cash bonus to be received by Mr. Shiftan equal to 6% of the annual increase in the Company's income before income taxes (excluding items that appear on the audited financial statements as extraordinary items and items that the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, determines are outside of the ordinary course of business) over the prior year.

Upon signing of the agreement, the Board of Directors of the Company granted Mr. Shiftan an option to purchase 350,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the Company's 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The options expire five years from the date of grant. Under the original terms of the option, 25% of the options vested and became exercisable on October 6, 2005 with the remaining options vesting and become exercisable ratably each quarter thereafter commencing on December 31, 2005 through June 30, 2010. vesting of all unvested outstanding employee stock options including Mr. Shifan's options. The purpose of accelerating the vesting of the options was to reduce the non-cash compensation expense that would be recorded in future periods following the Company's adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R) on January 1, 2006. In order to limit the personal benefit to Mr. Shifan, as well as all other optionees, of fully vesting their options, the Board of Directors of the Company imposed restrictions on the sale or transfer of the shares underlying the option until the earlier of (a) the date on which such options would have vested and become exercisable, without giving effect to such acceleration, or (b) death.

The agreement also provides for certain perquisites including Company paid automobile related expenses and the reimbursement of insurance premiums paid by Mr. Shifan up to $20,000 per year. Notes:

- (1) Mr. Siegel also receives these amounts upon a termination by the Company for good reason in connection with a change in control that is initiated by him, unless the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the change in control is at least 20% greater than the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on January 1, 2006. Upon such termination in connection with a change in control, however, Mr. Siegel's payments would be capped at $4,622,897 in order to entitle the Company to a deduction under Internal Revenue Code section 280G for the payments to Mr. Siegel and to prevent the imposition of excise taxes under Internal Revenue Code section 4999.

The amounts shown for each of the named executive officers do not include payments and benefits that do not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers and that are available generally to all salaried employees.

Jeffrey Siegel

If prior to the expiration of the term of Jeffrey Siegel's employment agreement, the Company terminates Mr. Siegel's employment for reasons other than death, disability or cause or Mr. Siegel resigns from his employment for good reason (herein defined as "Involuntary Termination"), Mr. Siegel is entitled to receive a severance payment. The severance payment is equal to one-thirty-six of Mr. Siegel's prior three years' total of salary and 2.5% EIBIT Bonus, multiplied by the number of months remaining in the term of his employment agreement. The severance payment is payable as follows: (i) a lump sum payment equal to the lesser of (a) the severance payment, and (b) an amount equal to the change in control severance (as described below), no later than thirty days after the date of the termination of employment, and if the Company has not within ninety days executed a definitive agreement to enter into a transaction the consummation of which would result in a Change in Control (as defined below) of the Company, the balance of the severance payment no later than ninety days after the date of the termination of employment. In addition to the severance payment, all of Mr. Siegel's then-outstanding stock options would be immediately vested and exercisable upon Involuntary Termination. In the event of Mr. Siegel's Involuntary Termination, he will also continue to participate on the same terms and conditions as are in effect immediately prior to his termination or resignation and at the Company's expense in the Company's health and medical plans until the end of the term of his employment agreement. In the event of Mr. Siegel's death following his Involuntary Termination, but prior to the payment of his severance, the severance payment will be paid to Mr. Siegel's beneficiary.

If the Company, within 90 days of the Involuntary Termination, executes a definitive agreement to enter into a transaction the consummation of which would result in a change in control of the Company and such transaction is actually consummated, Mr. Siegel will receive a change in control severance payment. For purposes of Mr. Siegel's employment agreement, Change in Control means: (i) the consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another entity or any other corporate reorganization, if more than 50% of the combined voting power of the continuing or surviving entity's issued shares or securities outstanding immediately after such merger, consolidation or other reorganization is owned by persons who were not shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such merger, consolidation or other reorganization; (ii) the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets; (iii) a change in the composition of the Board of Directors of the Company, as a result of which fewer than 40% of the incumbent directors are directors who had been directors of the Company on the date twenty-four months prior to the date of the event that may constitute a change in control (for example, the current Board has eight directors, a change of five incumbent directors shall constitute a Change in Control); (iv) any transaction as a result of which any person is the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing at least 50% of the total voting power represented by the Company's issued and outstanding shares.

If the Company undergoes a Change in Control, that was initiated, either directly or indirectly by Mr. Siegel and either (x) Mr. Siegel's employment is thereafter terminated under circumstances that would constitute an Involuntary Termination or (y) Mr. Siegel undergoes an Involuntary Termination and within 90 days of the Involuntary Termination, the Company executes a definitive agreement to enter into a transaction the consummation of which would result in a Change in Control and such transaction is actually consummated, the termination of Mr. Siegel's employment shall be treated as an Involuntary Termination. However, the preceding sentence will not apply in the event that the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date of the Change in Control is at least 20% greater than the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on January 1, 2006, the effective date of Mr. Siegel's employment agreement.

If Mr. Siegel is entitled to receive a Change in Control severance payment, the Company will pay as severance to Mr. Siegel, not later than thirty days following the date of termination, a lump sum severance payment equal to 2.99 times the average of the annual compensation which was payable to Mr. Siegel by the Company and includible in Mr. Siegel's gross income for Federal income tax purposes for the most recent five taxable years ending before the date on which the change in control occurs. Mr. Siegel's annual compensation for the purpose of calculating this severance payment includes every type and form of compensation includible in Mr. Siegel's gross income, including bonuses of any type and compensation income recognized as a result of Mr. Siegel's exercise of stock options. In the event of Mr. Siegel's death following a Change in Control, but prior to the payment of the Change in Control severance payment, the change in control severance payment will be paid to Mr. Siegel's beneficiary.

Ronald Shiftan

If, prior to the expiration of the term of Ronald Shiftan's employment agreement, the Company terminates Mr. Shiftan's employment for any reason other than death, disability or cause or Mr. Shiftan resigns from his employment for good reason (hereinafter referred to as an "Involuntary Termination"), Mr. Shiftan is entitled to a lump sum severance payment equal to the lesser of $400,000 or his salary remaining to the end of the term of the employment agreement, plus any annual cash bonus as determined in accordance with his employment agreement to the date of his Involuntary Termination. In addition to the severance payment, all of Mr. Shiftan's then-outstanding stock options would be immediately vested and exercisable upon Involuntary Termination. In the event of Mr. Shiftan's Involuntary Termination, he will also continue to participate on the same terms and conditions as are in effect immediately prior to his termination or resignation and at the Company's expense in the Company's health and medical plans until the end of the term of his employment agreement. In the event of Mr. Shiftan's death following his Involuntary Termination, but prior to the payment of his severance, the severance payment will be paid to Mr. Shiftan's beneficiary.

If during the term of Mr. Shiftan's employment agreement, the Company undergoes a Change in Control (as defined below) and such transaction is actually consummated, all of Mr. Shiftan's then-outstanding stock options shall be immediately vested and exercisable and Mr. Shiftan will receive a Change in Control severance payment equal to the lesser of 2.99 times the average of Mr. Shiftan's annual cash bonus and salary for the three years immediately preceding the change in control, or 1% of the Company's market capitalization (the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date the Change in Control is effected, multiplied by the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock issued and outstanding on that date) in excess of $220,000,000, up to a maximum amount of $2,500,000. For purposes of Mr. Shiftan's employment agreement, Change in Control means: (i) the consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with or into another entity or any other corporate reorganization, if more than 50% of the combined voting power of the continuing or surviving entity's issued shares or securities outstanding immediately after such merger, consolidation or other reorganization is owned by persons who were not shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such merger, consolidation or other reorganization; (ii) the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets; (iii) a change in the composition of the Board of Directors of the Company, as a result of which fewer than 50% of the incumbent directors are directors who had been directors of the Company on the date twenty-four months prior to the date of the event that may constitute a change in control (for example, the current Board has eight directors, a change of five incumbent directors shall constitute a change in control); (iv) any transaction as a result of which any person is the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing at least 50% of the total voting power represented by the Company's issued and outstanding shares. In the event of Mr. Shiftan's death following a Change in Control, but prior to the payment of the Change in Control severance payment, the change in control severance payment will be paid to Mr. Shiftan's beneficiary.

Alan Kanter

If, prior to the expiration of the term of Alan Kanter's employment agreement, the Company terminates Mr. Kanter's employment without cause or there is a diminution of Mr. Kanter's duties and responsibilities, Mr. Kanter will receive, as severance compensation, his base salary at the rate in effect on the date of termination, until the later to occur of: (i) one year following the effective date of any such termination; or (ii) the remainder of the term of Mr. Kanter's employment agreement. In addition Mr. Kanter, will also continue to participate on the same terms and conditions as are in effect immediately prior to his termination or resignation and at the Company's expense in the Company's health and medical plans until the first anniversary of his termination. If during the term of his employment agreement, Mr. Kanter becomes disabled so that he is unable to substantially perform his services to the Company for six consecutive months, his employment term may be terminated. In the event Mr. Kanter's employment term is terminated as a result of disability, the Company will pay Mr. Kanter until the first anniversary of his termination not less than 40% of Mr. Kanter's base salary. Mr. Kanter will also receive any bonus accrued. If Mr. Kanter dies during the term of his employment agreement, his surviving spouse, if any, is entitled to receive Mr. Kanter's base salary to the last day of the twelfth month next following the month in which his death occurs. Mr. Kanter's spouse will also receive any bonus accrued.

Evan Miller

If, prior to the expiration of the term of Evan Miller's employment agreement, the Company terminates Mr. Miller's employment for any reason other than death, disability or cause, or fails to renew Mr. Miller's employment agreement with no grounds for termination or Mr. Miller resigns for good reason, the Company will pay Mr. Miller severance equal to his base salary for one year. Upon any termination event Mr. Miller will receive any bonus he has accrued and accrued but unused vacation.

Robert McNally

If, prior to the expiration of the term of Robert McNally's employment agreement, the Company terminates Mr. McNally's employment for any reason other than death, disability or cause, or fails to renew Mr. McNally's employment agreement with no grounds for termination, or Mr. McNally resigns for good reason, the Company will pay Mr. McNally severance equal to his base salary for one year. Upon any termination event Mr. McNally will receive any bonus he has accrued and accrued but unused vacation.

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy that requires advance approval of all audit, audit-related, tax services, and other services performed by the independent auditor. The policy provides for pre-approval by the Audit Committee of specifically defined audit and non-audit services. Unless the specific service has been previously pre-approved with respect to that year, the Audit Committee must approve the permitted service before the independent auditor is engaged to perform it. The Audit Committee has delegated to the Chair of the Audit Committee authority to approve permitted services provided that the Chair reports any decisions to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

In addition to rendering audit services during 2006 and 2005, Ernst & Young performed non-audit services for the Company. The following table sets forth fees paid to Ernst & Young for services provided in the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005:

All other fees

All other fees consist of fees paid to Ernst & Young for access to Ernst & Young's online accounting research tool.

In making its appointment, the Audit Committee reviewed past audit, audit related and other non-audit services performed during 2006. In selecting Ernst & Young, the Audit Committee carefully considered their independence. The Audit Committee has determined that the performance of such non-audit services did not impair the independence of Ernst & Young.

Ernst & Young has confirmed to the Audit Committee that it is in compliance with all rules, standards and policies of the Independence Standards Board and the SEC governing auditor independence.

If the stockholders do not ratify this appointment the Audit Committee will reconsider the appointment.
