PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To be held on June 12, 2002

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Lifetime Hoan Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (the "Meeting") to be held on the date, at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Stockholders of record at the close of business on April 26, 2002 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy shall be mailed to stockholders on or about May 10, 2002.

THE MEETING

Voting at the Meeting

On April 26, 2002, there were 10,497,690 shares of the Company's common stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), issued and outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders at the Meeting.

A majority of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock represented at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. Assuming a quorum is present, (1) the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares so represented is necessary for the election of directors and 2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares so represented is necessary to approve and ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of the Company.

Proxies and Proxy Solicitation

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions marked on the proxies, unless such proxies have previously been revoked. If no directions are indicated on such proxies, they will be voted for the election of each nominee named below under "Election of Directors" and for the approval and ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of the Company. If any other matters are properly presented at the Meeting for action, the proxy holders will vote the proxies (which confer discretionary authority upon such holders to vote on such matters) in accordance with their best judgment. Each proxy executed and returned by a stockholder may be revoked at any time before it is voted by timely submission of a written notice of revocation or by submission of a duly executed proxy bearing a later date (in either case directed to the Secretary of the Company), or, if a stockholder is present at the Meeting, he may elect to revoke his proxy and vote his shares personally. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. If a stockholder, present in person or by proxy, abstains on any matter, such stockholder's shares of Common Stock will not be voted on such matter. Thus, an abstention from voting on any matter has the same legal effect as a vote "against" the matter, even though the stockholder may interpret such action differently. Except for determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, broker non-votes are not counted for any purpose in determining whether a matter has been approved.

The Company will bear the cost of preparing, printing, assembling and mailing the proxy, this Proxy Statement and other material which may be sent to stockholders in connection with this solicitation. It is contemplated that brokerage houses will forward the proxy materials to beneficial holders at the request of the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by the use of the mails, officers and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone without being paid any additional compensation. The Company will reimburse such persons for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in accordance with the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LIFETIME HOAN

The directors of the Company are elected annually by the stockholders of the Company. They will serve until the next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal.

Directors who are not employees of the Company receive an annual fee of $10,000 plus $1,000 for each meeting of the Board attended. Directors, who are employees of the Company, do not receive compensation for such services. The officers and directors of the Company have entered into indemnification agreements with the Company.

Audit Committee The Audit Committee is comprised of three directors who are independent, as required by the Audit Committee charter and the listing requirements for the Nasdaq National Market. The Audit Committee held three meetings during 2001. The current members are Ronald Shiftan (Chairman), Howard Bernstein and Leonard Florence.

The Audit Committee, among other things, regularly:

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Policies and Practices

The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has delegated to the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Committee") primary responsibility for establishing and administering the compensation programs of the Company for its executive officers and other key personnel.

The Committee annually reviews the Company's executive compensation practices to determine whether the Company's executive compensation practices (a) enable the Company to attract and retain qualified and experienced executive officers and other key personnel, (b) will motivate executive officers and other key personnel to attain appropriate short term and long term performance goals and to manage the Company for sustained long term growth, and (c) align the interests of executive officers and other key personnel with the interests of the stockholders.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") provides that compensation paid to a public company's chief executive officer and its four other highest paid executive officers in tax years 1994 and thereafter in excess of $1 million is not deductible unless such compensation is paid only upon the achievement of objective performance goals where certain procedural requirements have been satisfied. Alternatively, such compensation may be deferred until the executive officer is no longer a covered person under Section 162(m) of the Code. Any compensation subject to the Section 162(m) limitations will be automatically deferred until the payment of such compensation would be deductible by the Company except in those cases where the Committee determines that nondeductible payments would be consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Executive Officers' Disclosure

Each of the executive officers of the Company receives a salary at a level which is commensurate with the responsibility of such individual, and his or her prior experience. In reviewing salaries, the Committee takes into consideration the operating responsibility of each individual, his or her experience in the housewares industry, his or her expertise in overseas purchasing and the amount of time spent abroad. The Committee also examines the impact each individual has on the profitability and future growth of the Company. Such salaries are intended to be comparable to the salaries of other companies of comparable size and nature. Salary reviews are done annually.

The Company adopted the Lifetime Hoan Corporation 2000 Incentive Bonus Compensation Plan pursuant to which executive officers, and other designated participants are entitled to bonuses based on the performance criteria and targets that are established for an applicable period. The Company also adopted the Lifetime Hoan Corporation 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan, which permits the granting of options (and other stock based awards) to executive officers and other key personnel of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Chief Executive Officer Disclosure

The compensation of Milton L. Cohen, until he resigned on April 6, 2001, was governed by the terms of an agreement dated April 7, 1996, which had been approved by the Committee and had provided, among other things, for an annual base salary of $700,000 and an annual bonus as provided in the Company's Incentive Bonus Compensation Plan. His salary for 2001 was $188,000 and a special bonus was awarded to him for 2001 of $178,500.

The compensation of Jeffrey Siegel, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and President, was governed by the terms of an agreement dated April 6, 2001, which was approved by the Committee and provides, among other things, for an annual base salary of $700,000 and an annual bonus as provided in the Company's Incentive Bonus Compensation Plan. In addition to rendering audit services during 2001, Ernst & Young LLP performed other non-audit services for the Company and its subsidiaries.
