Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On November 5, 2026, Lifetime Brands, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release announcing the Company's results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2026. A copy of the Company's press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.02.

The information in this Item 2.02, including Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto, is being furnished and shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section and shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as otherwise expressly stated in such filing.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 3, 2026 (the "Effective Date"), the Company announced that its Board of Directors (the "Board") authorized an increase to the Company's previously-authorized share repurchase program (the "Repurchase Program") such that the amount of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), available for repurchase as of the Effective Date is $20 million (exclusive of fees and commissions).

Under the Repurchase Program, the Company may repurchase its Common Stock through a variety of methods, including open market purchases, which may or may not be pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans, privately negotiated transactions, accelerated share repurchases, block trades, tender offers, or any combination of such methods. The timing and amount of shares of Common Stock that may be repurchased under the Repurchase Program will depend on a variety of factors including, but not limited to, the share price, market conditions, corporate considerations, business opportunities, debt agreements, and regulatory requirements. The Repurchase Program does not have an expiration date and may be amended or terminated by the Board at any time without prior notice. Prior to the Effective Date, there was approximately $11.1 million available for repurchase under the Repurchase Program.

As of October 31, 2026, there were 22,984,460 shares of Common Stock outstanding.

Lifetime Brands, Inc. Reports Third Quarter 2026 Financial Results

Declares Regular Quarterly Dividend

Board Authorizes $20M Share Repurchase Program

GARDEN CITY, NY, November 5, 2026 – Lifetime Brands, Inc. (NasdaqGS: LCUT), a leading global designer, developer and marketer of a broad range of branded consumer products used in the home, today reported its financial results for the quarter ended September 30, 2026.

Rob Kay, Lifetime's Chief Executive Officer, commented, “We delivered net sales growth of 3.4% and expanded gross margin by 140 basis points in the third quarter as momentum continues across key parts of the business. International sales grew 18.8% and the segment approached breakeven as Project Concord takes hold. Home décor continues to grow, our Farberware relaunch is performing well, and our Dollar General partnership, launched in 2024, is on track to approach $20 million in sales this year. This year’s refinancing lowered our borrowing costs and strengthened our financial flexibility, and our new $20 million share repurchase authorization provides additional flexibility to return capital to shareholders. We look forward to sharing our capital allocation strategy and the tailwinds we see for 2027 at our Investor Day on December 1st.”

Third Quarter Financial Results:

Consolidated net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2026 were $177.7 million, representing an increase of $5.8 million, or 3.4%, as compared to net sales of $171.9 million for the corresponding period in 2025. In constant currency, a non-GAAP financial measure, which excludes the impact of foreign exchange fluctuations and was determined by applying 2026 average rates to 2025 local currency amounts, consolidated net sales increased by $5.8 million, or 3.4%, as compared to consolidated net sales in the corresponding period in 2025. A table reconciling this non-GAAP financial measure to consolidated net sales, as reported, is included below.

Gross margin for the three months ended September 30, 2026 was $64.9 million, or 36.5%, as compared to $60.4 million, or 35.1%, for the corresponding period in 2025. Gross margin for the current period included a charge for inventory reserves associated with a stock keeping unit rationalization ("SKU rationalization") of $3.3 million.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2026 were $38.2 million, an increase of $2.7 million, or 7.6%, as compared to $35.5 million for the corresponding period in 2025.

Loss from operations was zero, as compared to income from operations of $6.7 million for the corresponding period in 2025. Loss from operations for the current period included a SKU rationalization charge of $3.3 million.

Adjusted income from operations(1) was $13.8 million, as compared to adjusted income from operations of $11.5 million for the corresponding period in 2025. The 2026 period included adjustments for acquisition-related intangible amortization expense of $4.3 million, acquisition-related diligence expenses of $0.3 million, restructuring expenses of $0.6 million, warehouse relocation and redesign expenses of $5.3 million, and a SKU rationalization charge of $3.3 million. The 2025 period included adjustments for acquisition-related intangible amortization expense of $4.4 million, restructuring expenses of $0.3 million and warehouse relocation and redesign expenses of $0.1 million.

Net loss was $(4.2) million, or $(0.19) per diluted share, as compared to net loss of $(1.2) million, or $(0.05) per diluted share, in the corresponding period in 2025. Net loss for the current period included a SKU rationalization charge of $3.3 million.

Adjusted net income(1) was $8.4 million, or $0.37 per diluted share, as compared to adjusted net income of $2.5 million, or $0.11 per diluted share, in the corresponding period in 2025.

(1) A table reconciling this non-GAAP financial measure to its most comparable GAAP financial measure, as reported, is included below.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This earnings release contains non-GAAP financial measures, including constant currency net sales, adjusted income from operations, adjusted net income (loss), adjusted diluted income (loss) per common share, adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA, before limitation. A non-GAAP financial measure is a numerical measure of a company’s historical or future financial performance, financial position or cash flows that excludes amounts, or is subject to adjustments that have the effect of excluding amounts, that are included in the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP in the statements of income, balance sheets, or statements of cash flows of a company; or, includes amounts, or is subject to adjustments that have the effect of including amounts, that are excluded from the most directly comparable measure so calculated and presented. These non-GAAP financial measures are provided because the Company's management uses these financial measures in evaluating the Company’s on-going financial results and trends, and management believes that exclusion of certain items allows for more accurate period-to-period comparison of the Company’s operating performance by investors and analysts. Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures as indicators of business performance. These non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed as a supplement to, and not a substitute for, GAAP financial measures of performance. As required by SEC rules, the Company has provided reconciliations of the non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures.

Forward-Looking Statements

In this press release, the use of the words “advance,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “deliver,” “drive,” “enable,” “expect,” “gain,” “goal,” “grow,” “intend,” “maintain,” “manage,” “may,” “outlook,” “plan,” “positioned,” “project,” “projected,” “should,” “take,” “target,” “unlock,” “will,” “would”, or similar expressions is intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements include all statements regarding the growth of the Company, the Company’s financial guidance, the Company’s capital allocation strategy and plans, including potential share repurchases, the Company’s ability to navigate the current environment and advance the Company’s strategy, the Company’s commitment to increasing investments in future growth initiatives, the Company’s initiatives to create value, the Company’s efforts to mitigate geopolitical factors and tariffs, the Company’s current and projected financial and operating performance, results, and profitability and all guidance related thereto, including forecasted exchange rates and effective tax rates, as well as the Company’s continued growth and success, future plans and intentions regarding the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries. Such statements represent the Company’s current judgments, estimates, and assumptions. The Company believes these judgments, estimates, and assumptions are reasonable, but these statements are not guarantees of any events or financial or operational results, and actual results may differ materially due to a variety of important factors. Such factors might include, among others, the Company’s ability to comply with the requirements of its credit agreements; the availability of funding under such credit agreements; the Company’s ability to maintain adequate liquidity and financing sources and an appropriate level of debt, as well as to deleverage its balance sheet; seasonality of the Company's cash flows; the possibility of impairments to the Company’s goodwill; the possibility of impairments to the Company’s intangible assets; the highly seasonal nature of the Company’s business; the Company’s ability to drive future growth and profitability from its European operations; changes in U.S. or foreign trade or tax law and policy; changes in general economic conditions that could impact the Company’s customers and affect customer purchasing practices or consumer spending; customer ordering behavior; the performance of the Company’s newer products; expenses and other challenges relating to the integration of any future acquisitions; changes in demand for the Company’s products; changes in the Company’s management team; the significant influence of the Company’s largest stockholder; fluctuations in foreign exchange rates; changes in U.S. trade policy or the trade policies of nations in which the Company or the Company’s suppliers do business; shortages of and price volatility for certain commodities; global health epidemic; social unrest, including related protests and disturbances; the emergence, continuation and consequences of geopolitical conditions, including political instability in the U.S. and abroad, unrest, sanctions, war and armed conflicts, increasing regional and global tensions, and associated disruptions and volatility in energy and oil markets; macro-economic challenges, including labor disputes, depreciation of the U.S. dollar, volatility in the capital markets, inflationary impacts and disruptions to the global supply chain; dependence on third-party manufacturers; increase in supply chain costs, including raw materials, sourcing, transportation and energy; the imposition of duties and tariffs and other trade barriers and retaliatory countermeasures and/or economic sanctions implemented by the U.S. and other governments; impact of tariffs and trade policies, particularly with respect to China, including the risk of frequent changes, legal challenges, or reinstatement in modified form; the Company’s ability to successfully integrate acquired businesses; the Company’s expectations regarding customer purchasing practices and the future level of demand for the Company’s products; the Company’s ability to execute on the goals and strategies set forth in the Company’s Project Concord plan; and significant changes in the competitive environment and the effect of competition on the Company’s markets, including on the Company’s pricing policies, financing sources and ability to maintain an appropriate level of debt. The Company undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements other than as required by law.

[1] For the twelve months ended September 30, 2026, warehouse relocation and redesign expenses were related to the U.S. segment.

[2] For the twelve months ended September 30, 2026, SKU rationalization included $2.0 million related to the U.S. segment, and $1.3 million related to the International segment.

[3] Permitted non-recurring charges include severance expenses, restructuring expenses, warehouse relocation and redesign expenses, and SKU rationalization. These are permitted exclusions from the Company's adjusted EBITDA, subject to limitations, pursuant to the Company's Debt Agreements.

[4] Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure that is defined in the Company's debt agreements. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income (loss), adjusted to exclude income tax (benefit) provision, interest, net, depreciation and amortization, gain on disposition of fixed assets, mark to market (gain) loss on interest rate derivatives, stock compensation expense, non-cash rent adjustment, loss on extinguishment of debt, and other items detailed in the table above that are consistent with exclusions permitted by the Company's debt agreements. The quarters ended December 31, 2025, March 31, 2026, and June 30, 2026 have been recast for non-cash rent expense, to reflect the new definition of Adjusted EBITDA according to the Company's debt agreements.

[5] Adjusted EBITDA, less specified adjustment for the trailing twelve months ended September 30, 2026 was $44.4 million. It is used in the calculation of the Fixed Charge Ratio and minimum Adjusted EBITDA financial covenants. Adjusted EBITDA is defined above. The specified adjustment is defined as the IEEPA tariff refunds pursuant to the February 20, 2026 U.S. Supreme Court ruling that has been included in Net Income for the trailing twelve month period. IEEPA tariff refunds for the trailing twelve months ended September 30, 2026 was $40.1 million.
